Area	Description
1. Forum Topic	This area shows what the overall topic of the forum is. It may also sometimes include a rubric for how you will be graded in your posts and replies.
2. Discussion thread	This is someone's original post to the discussion forum. You will also hear this called a parent topic because it starts all the replies that come after it. Clicking on the name of the discussion thread will take you into that discussion.
3. Started by . .	This is who posted this topic. If they have a picture with their profile, you will see their picture both here and when they reply within discussions. Clicking on the name of the person will take you to their profile.
4. Replies	This is the number of total replies within the discussion. Some of these may be to the parent discussion or to replies within the discussion. Clicking on the number will take you into the discussion.
5. Last post	This is who posted last along with when they posted. Clicking on the name will take you to that person's profile. Clicking on the date/time will take you to that specific post.

Note

If you click on the date/time here, you will only see this reply. You will not see the parent or any replies to this posting.
